

Auto Service Technology Instructor

East Arkansas Community College is accepting applications for the position of Auto Service Technology Instructor.

POSITION SUMMARY

The Auto Service Technology Instructor is responsible for preparing materials as necessary to instruct, manage, and supervise individuals and groups in classrooms and laboratories by the following methods: demonstration, discussion, visual aids, conferences, etc.

TYPICAL FUNCTIONS

Assess instruction and learning by means of written, oral, practical, and performance tests. Maintain a student-oriented approach to education. Maintain and submit accurate and current reports and records involving student accountability, attendance, and performance. Serve on committees and attend faculty and other meetings as assigned. Improve professionally and maintain current through surveying and researching industrial and business establishments. Obtaining and maintaining certification as required. Participate in professional and specialty courses. Keep abreast of new development trends and techniques. Develop and revise curriculum as needed.

KNOWLEDGE, ABILITY, AND SKILLS

Knowledge of the principles and practices of the vocational education program being taught. Knowledge of the functions, operations, and/or maintenance of the various equipment used in the program being taught. Ability to instruct students in a vocational education program. Ability to evaluate student performance and measure progress. Ability to revise curriculum. Ability to make written and oral presentations.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

A certificate in Automotive Technology (preference will be given for AAS in Automotive Technology). ASE Master Automotive Certification (if lapsed, must be current by end of first full semester. Five (5) years of current automotive repair industry experience.

Please submit an EACC application, resume, and certificates of certification to EACC Human Resources Office @ 1700 Newcastle Road, Forrest City, AR 72335, or online @ www.eacc.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled.

EACC IS AN AA/EO EMPLOYER